

GSA PROPOSED EXEMPTION | TRIBAL CONSULTATION PLAN

Invitations to consult:

- Invitations will be sent via email from ACHP at least 30 days in advance to: Tribal Leaders and Leaders of Native Hawaiian Organizations.
- Invitation will include:
 - Draft of Proposed Exemption
 - Appendix A: Exempted Routine Maintenance and Preservation Activities
 - List of GSA's historic properties by State.

Consulting party meetings:

- Consultation meetings will be held on Zoom.
- Chat will be recorded for record keeping purposes.
- Duration of consultation meetings is 2 hours.
- Consultation meetings will occur on two separate days.
- ACHP and GSA personnel will take notes during consultation meetings.
- Consultation meetings may be recorded. If so, this must be noted on the invitation to consult and consulting parties must agree to be recorded.
- Slide deck will be emailed and posted on ACHP website.
- Hard copy of information will be sent to tribes, if requested.

Post consultation actions:

- a. ACHP will develop a summary of the meeting and written comments (Tribal and Native Hawaiian Organization comments will not be shared without express permission to the extent allowable)
 - i. The summary will be placed on ACHP's website
 - ii. The summary will be shared with Tribal and Native Hawaiian Organization Leaders and their 106 contacts
- b. ACHP will provide Tribal and Native Hawaiian Organization Leaders a revised document with explanation of how comments were or are being acted upon

ACHP will conduct additional consultation meetings with Tribal Governments on a case-by-case basis as requested, in coordination with GSA.

ACHP's Chairman will inform Tribal and Native Hawaiian Organization Leaders of ACHP's final action in writing including copies of:

- a. The final document
- b. A summary of consultation
- c. An explanation of how comments were or were not accounted for